

I am afraid of the results of letting several media outlets control our country. The situation has gotten bad enough because of loosened restrictions. Putting no restrictions on the number of media outlets a company can own is a serious threat to our country.